

EHGC Programme and dates 2018

Updated 8/4/2018

January	Tuesday 16 th	AGM Refreshments followed by a short talk Diana Perkins - "Love me, love my rocks"
February	Thursday 15 th	Steve Perkins - What's new about granites
March	Tuesday 20 th	Mike Goodyear - The Yellowstone Caldera
April	Saturday 7 th	Field Trip to Walton on the Naze – Jane Tubb.
April	Thursday 19 th	Richard Jarvest - Britain's oldest rocks and biggest impact crater: NW Scotland.
May	Tuesday 15 th	Jane Tubb – 'Microbes to marrows – the evolution of plants and flowers'
June	Thursday 21 st	Animal, Vegetable or Mineral (poetic licence) – three different topics present by three members.
July	Tuesday 17 th	Geology in Essex Walls: an interesting bit of research of general interest. Ian and Ros Mercer  If there is enough interest we might consider doing something similar in East Herts' http://www.erms.org/news.html .
August	Tuesday 14 th	Rockwatch at Ware Museum on August (children) 11am – 3pm Members welcome to help or just visit.
September	Tuesday 11 th	The Rockies Judi and Neil C-R
October	Tuesday 30 th	Charity Lecture 'Butterflies and Moths of Hertfordshire by Andrew Wood of Butterfly Conservation
November	Thursday 15 th	Mike Howgate Geological wonders of Hertfordshire
December	Tuesday 11 th	Christmas Do – slides – Quarries and People
2019 January	Tuesday 15 th	AGM

The Essex Rock and Mineral Society are working on a pebble project is called 'Geology in Essex Walls' and we were invited to extend the survey into East Herts. We thought this would make some interesting and enjoyable outings during the summer. See details at <http://www.erms.org/news.html>.